

Dear Parents and Students,

We are happy to announce that Dolna Day School has been selected for the *Summer Book Writing Festival (SBWF) 2026*. Organized by BriBooks and EducationWorld, in partnership with *Discovery Channel and NDTV*, this is the world's largest free online summer camp for Grades 3-12.

To ensure that the students get to enjoy their vacations and learn a bit more about story-writing and editing, we *recommend this as a mandatory Summer English Activity* to help every child become a globally published author.

Why Participate?

- * Become a Published Author: Write and publish an original book at zero cost. The only cost involved is if and when you want a hardcopy of the book.
- * Global Recognition: Opportunities for features on *Discovery Channel, NDTV*, and book launches at the *World Book Festival, New Delhi*.
- * Certification: Every student receives a Participation Certificate upon publishing.
